Part St. George, February 15, 1929

No. 35.—

His Excellency Vice-Admiral J. P. Sagar-Sagar, R.N., the Naval Commander-in-Chief of the East Indian Station, is expected to arrive at Madras in the Flagship "H.M.S. "Hornet," at 2 a.m. on Wednesday, the 22nd February 1929. As soon as the Flagship is sighted the Deputy Port Commissioner, Madras, will intimate the fact by telephone to the Chief Secretary to Government, the Officer Commanding, Madras, and the Military Secretary to His Excellency the Governor. On arrival of the Flagship in the harbour the President Port Officer, accompanied by the Deputy Port Commissioner, will go on board. Half an hour before His Excellency the Naval Commander-in-Chief's landing, the Military Secretary to His Excellency the Governor will go on board and will remain there till he accompanies His Excellency ashore.

2 The following arrangements are provided for His Excellency the Naval Commander-in-Chief's reception at 10 a.m. on Wednesday, the 22nd February 1929, on landing at the West Quay:—

His Excellency will be received on landing with due honours due to his rank; arrangements will be made for a guard of honour and band to be stationed on the West Quay and the usual salute will be fired. The following officers will be present on the quay:—

- (1) The Officer Commanding, Madras.
- (2) The Chairman of the Madras Port Trust.

- (3) The President Port Officer.
- (4) The Collector of Madras.
- (5) The Commissioner of Police, Madras.
- (6) Such Military Officers as the Officer Commanding, Madras, may direct.
- (7) An Aide-de-Camp to His Excellency the Governor.

The Mayor of the Corporation of Madras has been invited to be present. Dress for Military Officers will be review order khaki.

3 His Excellency the Naval Commander-in-Chief will then proceed to Government House in a State carriage accompanied by two officers of His Excellency's staff and escorted by a detachment of His Excellency the Governor's Bodyguard. His Excellency the Naval Commander-in-Chief will retire to the Flagship by motor car accompanied by one officer of His Excellency's staff and the Military Secretary to His Excellency the Governor. Another motor car will convey the other officers of His Excellency's staff together with an Aide-de-Camp.

4 At 12-15 a.m. His Excellency the Governor, accompanied by the Military Secretary to His Excellency the Governor and one Aide-de-Camp, will leave Government House, Madras, under the usual salute and will drive to the harbour in a State carriage escorted by His Excellency the Governor's Bodyguard to receive the visit of His Excellency the Naval Commander-in-Chief. His Excellency will return to Government House by motor car.

(By order of His Excellency the Governor)

G. T. SOAG,
Chief Secretary.
